1. Primary or collateral evidence from vital statistics, courthouse or other government records, church records etc.usually is considered excellent proof.
2. Secondary evidence, such as census records, newspaper clippings, old letters, Bible or other family records CONTEMPORARY TO THE FACTS REPORTED is considered almost as authentic.
3. Circumstantial evidence, implied facts of hearsay are NOT accepted as proof.
4. Oral, written, or published family traditions may be wrong and are NOT accepted as proof.
5. Printed or manuscript genealogies, genealogical records or compilations, family group sheets and charts, family reunion records and similar material are not considered proof. Unsupported information from an amateur or a professional genealogist is not acceptable, including such records printed in any genealogical, historical or similar publication.

7. Material authored by the applicant or a member of his or her family cannot be considered as proof.
8. Documents used as proof must, either alone or in conjunction with other acceptable documents, actually STATE THE FACT TO BE PROVED.

Examples of implied proof which are not acceptable are:

- A. Unnamed individuals specified in court records as “heirs” or “heirs-at-law” unless it is known that applicable laws at the time include only bloodline descendants.
- B. Census records which show the name of the head of the family only, along with numbers of family members or others by age group, prove only the family head actually named. Next door or close neighbors on a census or tax record do not prove any relationship by themselves.
- C. A father is not proved as being in an area just because his child was born there. The birth only proves the mother was there!

- D. Blood descent is not necessarily proved by owning the same land as an earlier owner by the same name, whether the land was inherited or purchased.
9. Documents written or printed in a foreign language must be accompanied by a translation into English and the translation certified as a “true translation” by the translator (not the applicant or a family member).
 10. Old letters or family records can be accepted as proof for only the facts that the writer could logically know as CONTEMPORARY KNOWLEDGE. Identification of the writer and the date is necessary. County histories or other published biographies also should have been written by someone with contemporary knowledge, not hearsay, to be acceptable.
 11. Land or tax records are acceptable only if they specify that the individual was a resident of Darke County, Ohio, since many early landowners and speculators never lived in Darke County, Ohio.
 12. Female ancestors living in Darke County, Ohio must be identified by their maiden names when marriage was in Darke County, Ohio. Exceptions are made only in the case of Blacks and American Indians, and only when such ethnicity is proved.

 15. All proof documents must state their source. Proof is required for each date listed for both persons in each generation. Bible records must include a photocopy of the title page with publication date and current owner’s name and address.
 16. Typed, handwritten, or printed copies of original documents must be certified as a “TRUE COPY” by a courthouse or other official, or a librarian, etc. An applicant or member of his or her family cannot certify a document as a “TRUE COPY”. Photocopies of original documents are acceptable as copied if there are no changes on the original.

 18. Photographs of tombstones are acceptable for proof of birth and death dates and for relationship actually stated on the stone. Published compilations of tombstone reading are acceptable if no additional information has been written in that is not on the stones themselves.
 19. If an ancestor has been previously proved by another individual, the applicant may submit proof only to nearest common ancestor, if so desired. A citation to the name of the lineage member should be included
